

Logify Cargo

CODE OF ETHICS & CODE OF CONDUCT

The purpose of the code is to describe our business ethics standards. It applies to all our employees, directors and others working with or for the Logify Cargo.

This Code outlines the ethical principles that are to govern the decisions and behaviour of the Company's Employees and is designed to help Employees conduct business honestly, respectfully and with integrity. This Code outlines the core values of the Company, with respect to how Employees are generally supposed to approach problems. For the avoidance of doubt, this Code does not purport to describe all the Company's policies in detail.

The goal of this document is to educate all employees of the organization about the importance of business ethics and the company's commitment to ensuring same. Compliance with this document is mandatory and exceptions are not permitted.

Commitment and Responsibility

Logify Cargo Shipping Ltd is committed to ensuring that all its international activities are conducted in accordance with all applicable legal and regulatory requirements and the highest standards of ethical business conduct.

It is the responsibility of all Logify Cargo Shipping Ltd employees to ensure that none of Logify Cargo Shipping businesses engage in practices which violate legal or regulatory requirements, or which fall below these standards. Any Logify Cargo employee engaging in business practices which violate legal or regulatory requirements or fall below the standards of ethical business conduct may be subject to disciplinary action which may lead to dismissal and or personal criminal or civil liability.

It is the responsibility of each Logify Cargo employee to ensure that they report an infringement or suspected infringement, legal or regulatory, to their direct manager or to a member of the Compliance Committee in accordance with Company Policy on this subject.

Conflicts of Interest

A conflict of interest occurs when an Employee's private interests interfere, or even appears to interfere, with the interests of the Company as a whole. While it is not possible to describe every situation in which a conflict of interest may arise, Employees must never use or attempt to use their position with the Company to obtain improper personal benefits. Any Employee who is aware of a conflict of interest, or is concerned that a conflict might develop, should discuss the matter with the Audit Committee or counsel to the Company immediately.

Compliance with Laws, Rules and Regulations

In conducting day to day business activities, all employees are to follow and observe the local laws, rules and regulations of the country they operate in. This is mandatory.

Accurate Records

Logify Cargo mandates that all Company Records at all locations be accurate and maintained in accordance with QMS requirements which are derived from recognized and standard business practices worldwide. In addition to records being accurate, business records and documents are retained or destroyed only according to the guidelines of the Company's Control of Records procedure. To ensure proper check and balance, Logify Cargo Office has a dedicated Finance Manager to ensure accounting records are accurate, receipts and expenditures are itemized and backed by supporting documentation and paperwork. Apart from regular periodic internal audits, external audits are also conducted yearly to ensure best practices are being adhered to.

Corporate Opportunities

Employees owe a duty to advance the legitimate interests of the Company when the opportunities to do so arise. Employees may not take for themselves personally opportunities that are discovered through the use of corporate property, information or position.

Confidentiality and Privacy

It is important that Employees protect the confidentiality of Company information. Employees may have access to proprietary and confidential information concerning the Company's business, clients and suppliers. Confidential information includes such items as non-public information concerning the Company's business, financial results and prospects and potential corporate transactions. Employees are required to keep such information confidential during employment as well as thereafter, and not to use, disclose, or communicate that confidential information other than in the course of employment. The consequences to the Company and the Employee concerned can be severe where there is unauthorized disclosure of any non-public, privileged or proprietary information.

To ensure the confidentiality of any personal information collected and to comply with applicable laws, any Employee in possession of non-public, personal information about the Company's customers, potential customers, or Employees, must maintain the highest degree of confidentiality and must not disclose any personal information unless authorization is obtained.

The Company respects and takes seriously the protection of the personal data of all natural persons who use the Company's facilities, services and websites. The Company also strives to take all appropriate technical and organizational measures required to protect the personal data it collects and processes.

Honest and Fair Dealing

Employees must endeavour to deal honestly, ethically and fairly with the Company's customers, suppliers, competitors and other Employees. No Employee should take unfair advantage of anyone through manipulation, concealment, abuse of privileged information, misrepresentation of material facts, or any other unfair-dealing practice. Honest conduct is considered to be conduct that is free from fraud or deception. Ethical conduct is considered to be conduct conforming to accepted professional standards of conduct.

Freedom from discrimination and harassment

Our Company is committed to creating an environment in which all individuals are able to make the best of their skills, free from discrimination or harassment and bullying. The Company is committed to providing a working environment free from discrimination against staff on the basis of sex or sexual orientation, marital or civil partner status, gender reassignment, race (which includes colour, nationality, ethnic or national origin), religion or belief, disability, age and pregnancy or maternity (collectively known as “protected characteristics”), as well as one where harassment and bullying does not occur. It should be noted that all Employees are required to work in a manner that facilitates the fostering of such a working environment and to report any known or suspected breaches or violations as described below in the section entitled "Internal Reporting". Discrimination, harassment and bullying are violations of the Company’s ethical principles and may subject the Company and any Employee guilty of such behaviours to liability, both criminal and civil. Complaints of discrimination, harassment and bullying will be investigated promptly, sensitively and confidentially.

Health, Safety & Environment

Logify Cargo is committed to conducting its business in compliance with all applicable environment and workplace health and safety laws and regulations. It is the responsibility of the Company to ensure as far as is reasonably practical, a safe work environment which avoids impacting and causing injury to the environment and to the communities in which Logify Cargo operates.

Drugs and Alcohol

Company policy prohibits the illegal use, sale, purchase, transfer, possession or consumption of controlled substances, other than medically prescribed drugs, while on the Company premises. Company policy also prohibits the use, sale, purchase, transfer or possession of alcoholic beverages by Employees while on Company premises, except as authorized by the Company. This policy requires the Company to abide by applicable laws and regulations relative to the use of alcohol or other controlled substances. The Company, in its discretion, reserves the right to randomly test Employees for the use of alcohol or other controlled substances unless prohibited by prevailing local law.

Corporate Communications Policy

Only certain designated Employees may discuss the Company with the news media, securities analysts and investors. All inquiries from regulatory authorities or government representatives should be referred to the appropriate designated Employee. Employees exposed to media contact during their course of employment must not comment on rumours or speculation regarding the Company’s activities.

Electronic Communication

“Electronic communications” include all aspects of voice, video, and data communications, such as voice mail, e-mail, fax, and Internet. Employees should use electronic communications for business purposes and refrain from personal use while on Company premises or when performing Company duties. Among other things, Employees should not participate in any online forum where the business of the Company or its customers or suppliers is discussed; such participation may give rise to a violation of the Company's confidentiality policy or subject the Company to legal action for defamation. The Company reserves the right to inspect all electronic communications involving the use of the Company's equipment, software, systems, or other facilities ("Systems") within the confines of applicable local law and Employees should not have an expectation of privacy when using Company Systems.

Financial offerings, gifts and entertainment

We do not offer or accept monetary benefits or gifts to achieve business advantages which we would not otherwise be entitled to. If we receive such offerings, we question why they are made and if anything is expected in return. We ensure that all offerings of any significance are disclosed and approved by our respective manager.

Working environment

We behave with respect for the people with whom we work. Harassment, bullying, discrimination or other behaviour that may be perceived as threatening or degrading is not acceptable. We do not discriminate against others on the grounds of race, gender, sexual preference or any other grounds.

External engagement

We obtain approval from our respective manager before engaging in external business enterprises, statutory authorities or similar bodies which may have commercial relations to our company. When participating in an external activity, we will ensure that any opinions we express are in harmony with the company's interests.

Company Resources

The resources provided by the Company are there to assist employees in performing their day to day responsibilities efficiently and productively. While the Company ensures that all needed resources, be it equipment or otherwise, are provided to aid the employee in effectively carrying out Company business, the employee is responsible for ensuring that these resources are used for work and work only purposes. Under no circumstances are these resources to be shared with anyone outside the Company or to be used for private purposes. Similarly, employees are responsible for taking appropriate measures to protect these resources.

Personal Conduct

Each and every employee of the company irrespective of their position represents the organization to the outside world. The way they present themselves is the way our company is perceived. Therefore, the highest professional standards and etiquettes must be present at all times irrespective of any situation or conflict. This applies to interaction within the company also.
